

Short Term Outcomes by Form of Wealth

Individual Wealth	Intellectual Wealth	Social Wealth	Political Wealth	Natural Wealth	Built Wealth	Financial Wealth	Cultural Wealth
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Improved attitudes, knowledge, beliefs and awareness of target population Improved skills of program participants: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Academic (STREAM) Creative Technical Social Business / Work readiness Increased GED attainment rates for dropouts Increased attainment of high school diplomas Increased student proficiency on standardized tests. (e.g. 3rd grade reading scores, 7th grade math scores) Increased target population utilization of locally grown healthy foods Increased target population utilization of effective healthcare Increased number of people employed in the economic sectors of health, outdoor and recreation, local food, and/or arts and culture Increased livable wage 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Established and sustainable proven educational or vocational program (i.e. program will outlast TGKVF funding) Increased number of qualified tutors, mentors, and teachers Increased access to early learning programs (birth – age 5) Increased access for a diverse population (target population) to quality post-secondary and training programs (particularly for promising sector jobs) Increased improvements in spread and accessibility of preventative, chronic, behavioral health and/or oral healthcare Increased access to information about recreational activities, access to green space, and locally grown foods Increased capacity and reach of programs that develop, promote, and support leaders from underrepresented groups 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Participants engaged in activities (non-school and work) in the community, including after-school educational programs Improved social bonds / improved personal relationships among target population Increased feelings of support and trust among target population Increased civic engagement and diversity in volunteerism, voting, community leadership Increased number of people who volunteer Increased number of/ improvement to social places where people can gather (may also be recorded under built wealth) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Increased self-advocacy and civic engagement among target population Changes in policy or practice (may affect any of 3 priority areas; however, please note that the Foundation does not directly support legislative activity or lobbying) Public support for Education Health Community Economic Development 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Increased improvements to the natural environment: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Number of new or expanded acres of greenspace Improvements to facilities that provide trails, greenspace, and stream access while managing the sites to ensure user safety Increased awareness / appreciation / use of natural environment 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Increased improvements made to “built” structures (buildings, roads, sidewalks, websites, broadband, etc.) Increased new “built” structures Improved safety and access to public spaces 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Improved participant employment outcomes (e.g. wages, hours, connections) beyond survival / household savings Increased participant financial literacy skills / knowledge of how to spend, save, and invest Investments in the local economy Increased small business development growth and micro business growth (new businesses start-up focus) Increased access to capital 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> More equitable opportunities that are inclusive, engaging, and accessible to all community members: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Include/emphasize marginalized residents Identify and incorporate interests and needs of marginalized residents Eliminate participation barriers Increased exposure and understanding of various ideas, traditions, ethnicities, and backgrounds Increased opportunities for community members to learn about (appreciate, create, or disseminate) the arts and/or cultural work. Increased opportunities for community members to create or disseminate the arts and/ cultural work (including for-profit activities) Increased opportunities for members of the community to participate in /consume/ enjoy the arts and/or cultural work (e.g. view, buy, comment)

Outcome Measures for Forms of Wealth

Individual Wealth	Intellectual Wealth	Social Wealth	Political Wealth	Natural Wealth	Built Wealth	Financial Wealth	Cultural Wealth
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • # of persons who demonstrated improved attitudes, knowledge, beliefs, and/or awareness • # of persons who demonstrated improved skills. • # of persons who obtained a GED • Increased attainment of High school diplomas • Increased student proficiency on standardized test • # of persons who had increased utilization of locally grown health foods • # of persons who had increased utilization of effective healthcare • # of persons who obtained employment • # of persons who had increased income/wages 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • # of educational or vocational programs established or sustained • # of qualified tutors, mentors, and teachers trained and or enlisted • Increased access to early learning programs (Birth age 5) • # of persons who had increased access to quality post secondary training programs • # of persons who were given information or increased accessibility o preventative, chronic, behavioral and/or oral health • # of persons who were given information about or had increased access to recreational activities, access to green space, and locally grown foods • # of programs developed or expanded to have the capacity to develop promote and support leaders from underrepresented groups 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • # of persons engaged in (non-school and work)activities in the community • # of persons who have improved social bonds/improved personal relationships • # of persons who have increased feelings of support ad trust • Number of persons who demonstrated increased civic engagement, voting, or community leadership. • # of persons who volunteered • Increased number of improvement to social places where people can gather (may also be recorded under built wealth) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • # of persons who demonstrated increased self-advocacy and civic engagement • # of documented changes in policy or practice • # of events that documented public support for the program or issue 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • # of improvements to the natural environment • # of persons that demonstrated an increased awareness/appreciation/use of natural environment 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • # of improvements made to built structures (buildings, roads, sidewalks, websites, broadband access, etc) • # of new built structure/activities • # of improvements made to increase safety and access to public spaces 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • # of persons with improved employment outcomes • # of persons with increased household savings. • # of persons with increased financial literacy skills/knowledge of how to spend, save, and invest • Amount of additional funding attracted to the local economy • Number of small/micro/new business that start or grow 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • # of persons with more equitable opportunities that are inclusive, engaging, and accessible to all community members • # of persons with increased exposure and understanding of various ideas, traditions, ethnicities, and backgrounds • # of persons with increased opportunities for community members to learn about the arts and/or cultural work • # of persons with increased opportunities for community members to create or disseminate the arts and/or cultural works • # of persons with increased opportunities for member of the community to participate in/consume/enjoy the arts and/or cultural work